

Transition Plan Force (TPT) Index Update

July 2026

TPT Principle	References
1.1 Strategic ambition	See Sustainability, Our Approach for more information
1.2 Business model and value chain	See Sustainability, Our Approach for more information
1.3 Key assumptions and external factors	See Our Annual Report 2025, page 28-32
2.1 Business operations	See Our Annual Report 2025, page 26
2.2 Products and services	See Our Annual Report 2025, page 04, 16-23
2.3 Policies and conditions	See Sustainability, Environment for more information
2.4 Financial planning	See Our Annual Report 2025 for more information
3.1 Engagement with value chain	See Sustainability, Environment, Engagement Strategy for more information
3.2 Engagement with strategy	See Our Annual Report 2025 for more information
3.3 Engagement with government, public sector and civil society	See Our Annual Report 2025 for more information
4.1 Governance, business and operational metrics and targets	See Sustainability, Environment for more information
4.2 Financial metrics and targets	See Sustainability, Environment for more information
4.3 GHG metrics and targets	See Sustainability, Environment for more information
4.4 Carbon credits	Ceres does not purchase or provide carbon credits, and so there is no reference aligned to TPT 4.4 Carbon credits.
5.1 Board oversight and reporting	See Sustainability, Governance, Board Oversight for more information
5.2 Roles, responsibility and accountability	See Sustainability, Governance for more information
5.3 Culture	See Sustainability, People for more information
5.4 Incentives and remuneration	See Sustainability, Governance for more information
5.5 Skills, competencies and training	See Sustainability, Governance for more information

ceres